

Holy Quran Removes Veils Of Ignorance

CONT...

In Surah Al – Maun, the verses about Salaah are a powerful encouragement and awakening towards the role, this aspect (from Furoo e Deen) practically affects our lives, whether positively or negatively.

When the sensible human chooses to be guided thus from Salaah simultaneously keeping a check over his intentions and actions by constantly remembering Qiyamah (from Usool – Roots of religion) and that he shall have to answer for each second of his life, then tell me my fellow readers..... Does such a conscientious, purposeful human being, not deserve the abundant rewards of having his prayers and fast accepted? Will God still punish one who has repented sincerely after understanding how sins scar the soul and blemish his life in both worlds? And will not the questioning be eased and relaxed in Qiyamah for such a creature who has sincerely endeavored to earn God's proximity in the life that was but a trial to prepare him to meet the Great Lord?

No wonder then that the Holy Quran is a living miracle, which never ceases to bewilder the human intellect!

If it has succeeded to transform Non – Muslims, it certainly holds the power to elevate its true owners, the Muslims to unimaginable spiritual heights by removing materialistic, worldly veils of darkness and ignorance.

Man's mission should be to enter realms of beauty and light to perceive God's Great Love by holding on to the Immaculate Masuma (a.s) and the Great Miraculous Book!
